Memorabilia . . .

. . . that's the stuff we collect all through the year — the assorted bits and pieces of junk that clutter up lockers, bedrooms, and memories. Alone, each piece may bring about a happy recollection of a single moment or event. Together, these treasured souvenirs form a collection that becomes a memory picture of the whole year.

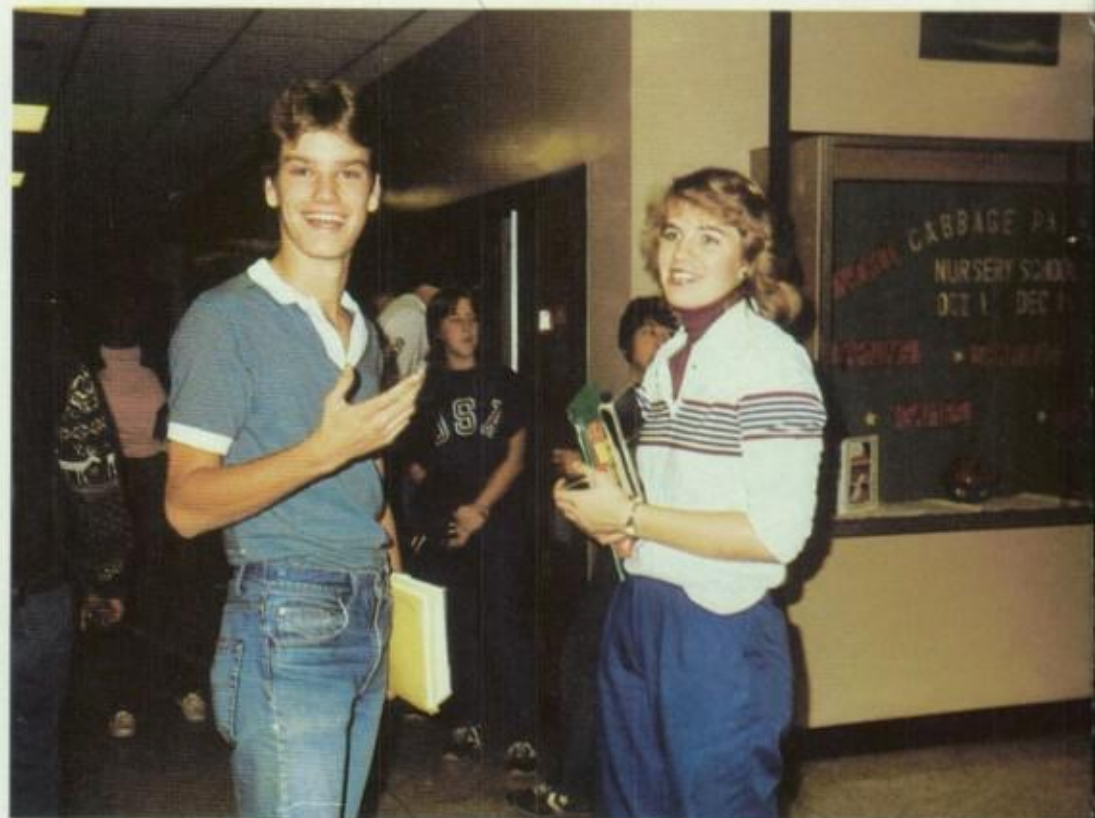

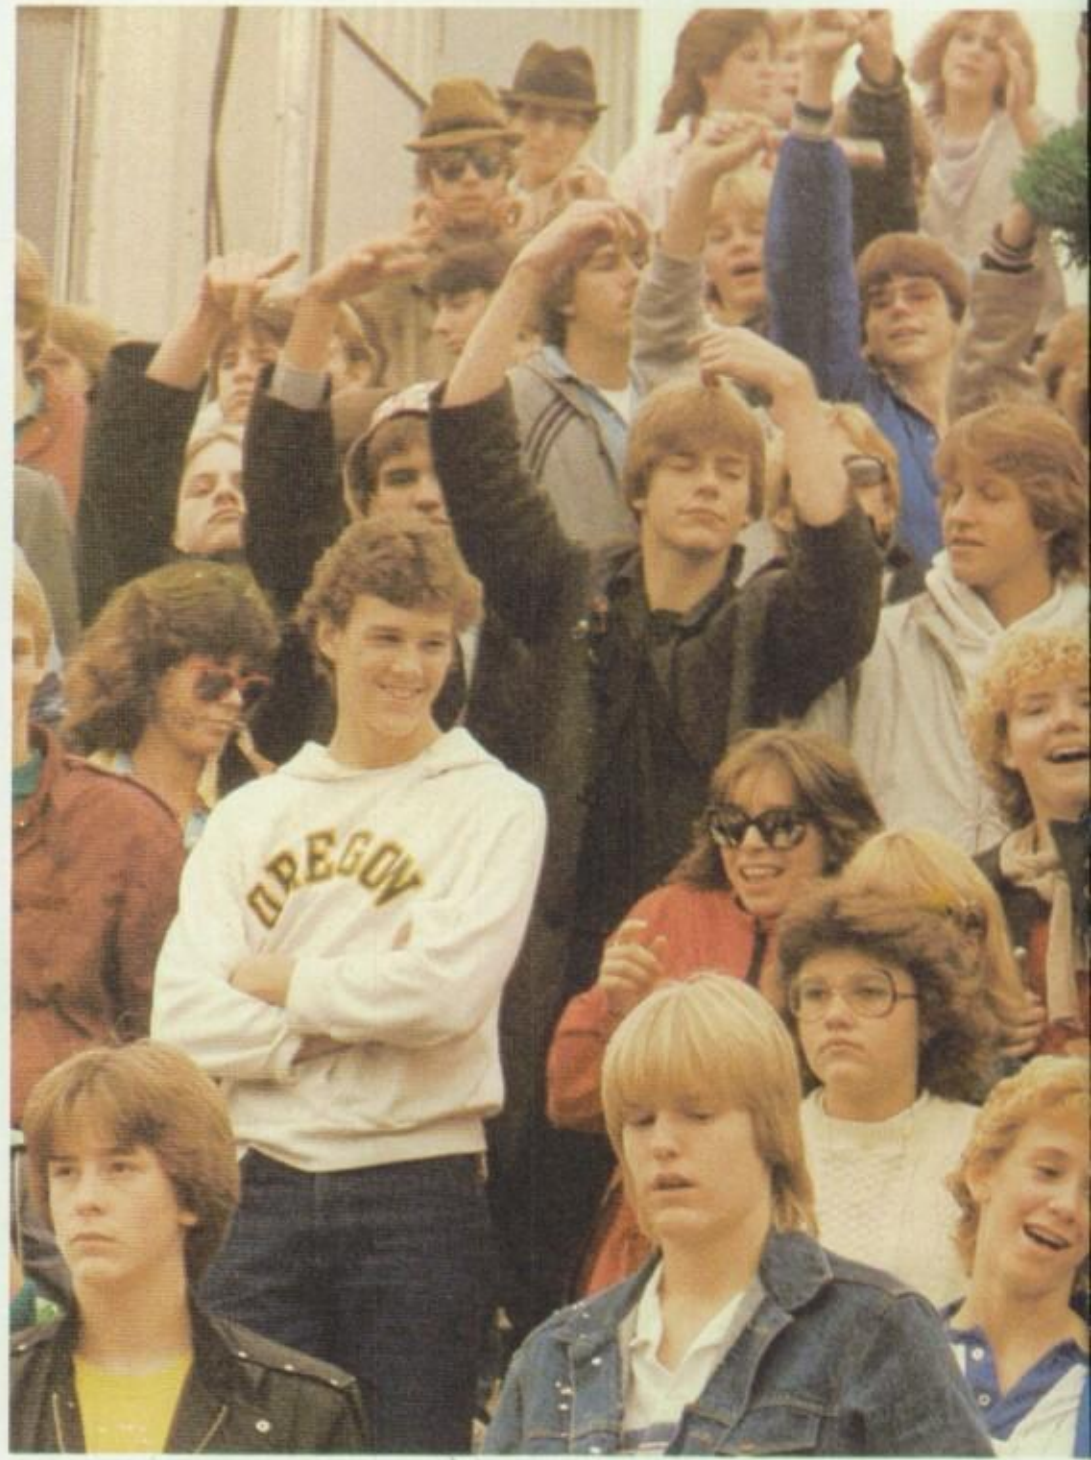

Each person's collection is different and reflects his own unique personality, but there are lots of items of "memorabilia" that everyone can respond to. We all have an old ID card, class schedules, and report cards to remind us of all the hard work we've done. And we've got lots of reminders of the good times we've had, too — a pressed corsage, a weathered frisbee, a football jersey, a cup from Hardee's. Many of us even have memorabilia from some less happy occasions — a parking ticket, detention slips, home reports, and other reminders that there were some bad times mixed in with the good.

Whether they be reminders of good times or bad times, work times or play times, all these pieces of memorabilia are more than just random bits of stuff that clutter our lives. Together, they become a collage of memories that can re-create a whole year for us and keep alive or recollections of 1985.

We'll always remember our special friendships. Friends are what make good times better.

I met you this year. Even though we didn't talk much or see much of each other. Have a good summer and Don't party too much buz, Deanna

Lunch is the time we all look forward to. It's a chance to relax, goof around, and do what we want to.

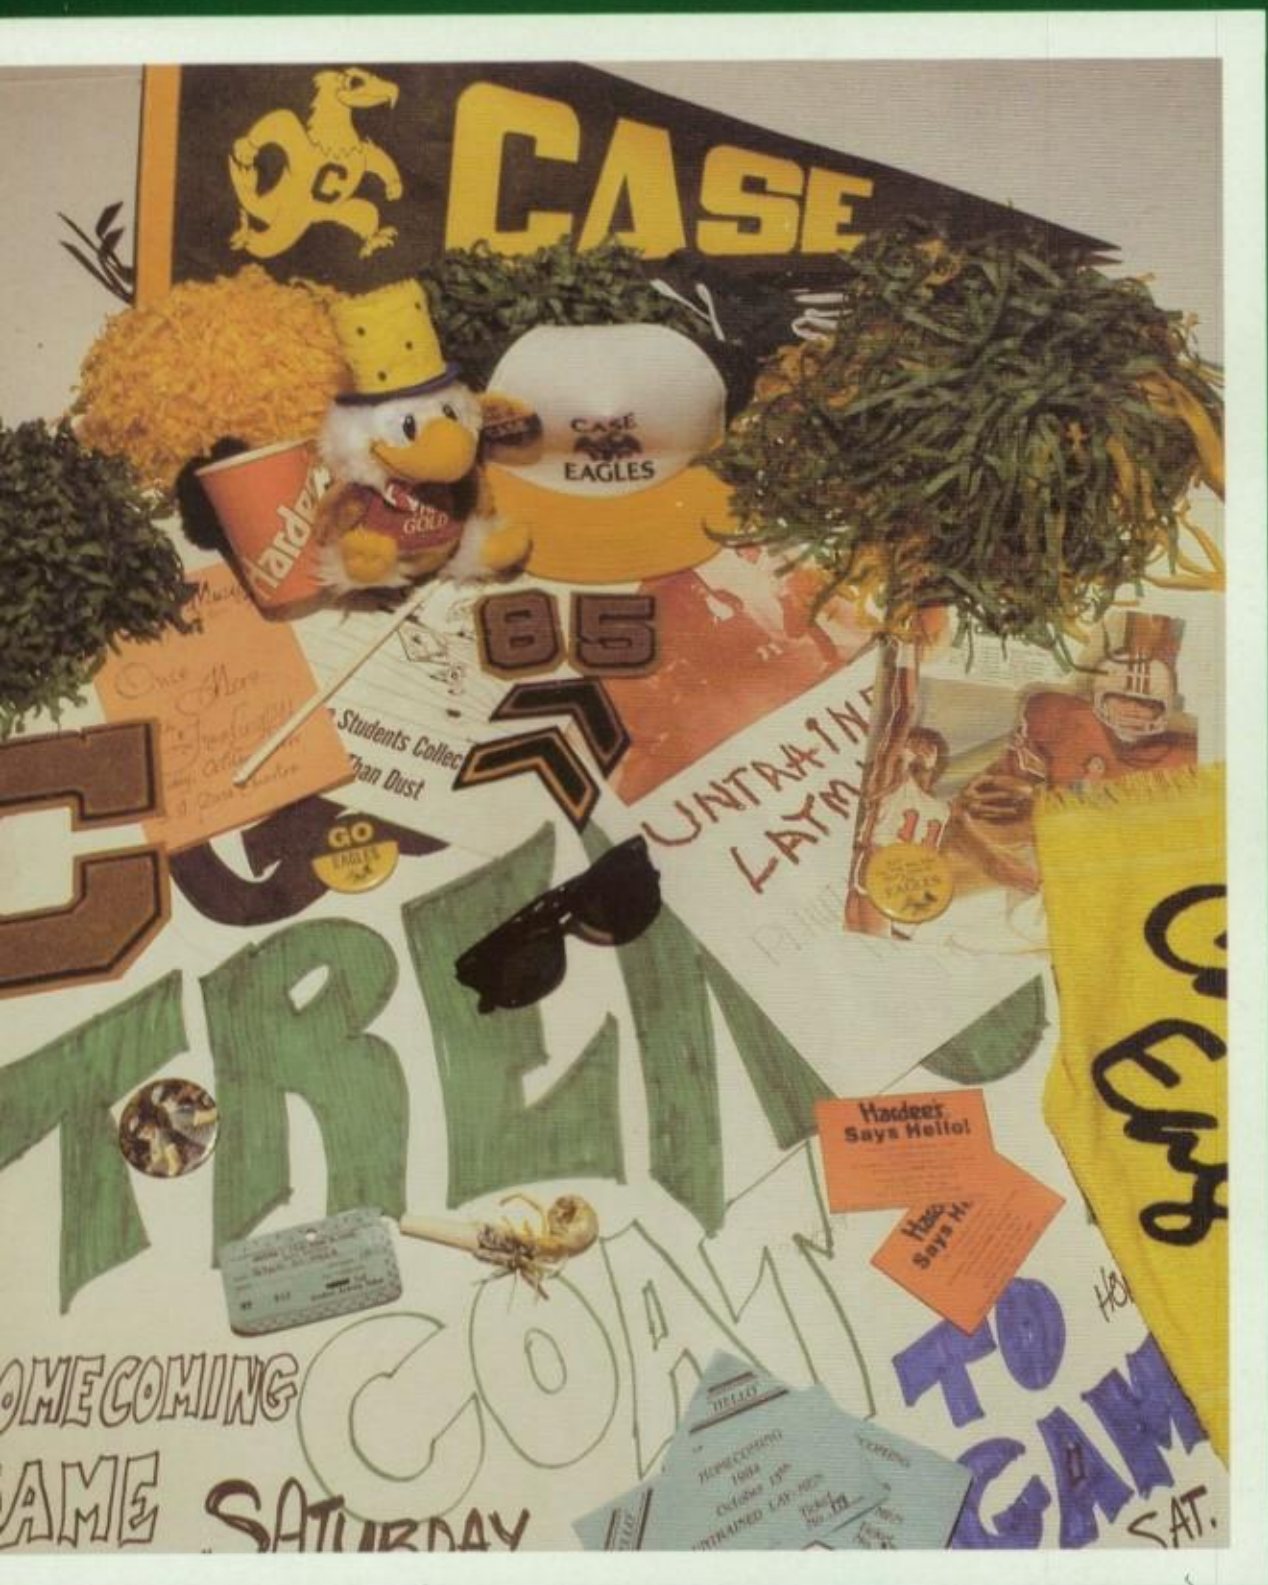

Each day we gain
new knowledge.
Hopefully, this knowledge will stay with us long after we leave case.

HOMECOMING COURT — L.-R.: Eric Bobinski (standing in for Dale Christensen), Terri-Dee Gustin, Jon Adams, Sue Harris, Homecoming Queen Sue Mathias, Homecoming King Todd Mottl, Heather McGee, John Hunt, Lisa Fiegel, Mike Tenuta.

Scott, so what's up guy? You really shocked me this year. I didn't know you were such a party animal!

HOMECOMING — 1984

tell you one thing. You have better taste than what I've seen. I mean, Lisa W. isn't exactly the most popular girl in the school. You can definitely do better.

Don't party too much this summer. But partying is ever enough then too much night? Stay cool. Love

Homecoming Fun!

The Diary of Adam and Eve

"The Diary of Adam and Eve" refers to the Biblical characters and their lives. As the story goes, Eve is tempted by the serpent who offers her an apple. The play ends on a touch of irony when they have apple pie for dessert.

1. The snake (Heidi Sura) offers the apple to Eve (Gwen Gayhart).
2. Eve talks to the animals. (Michelle Shaughnessy, Wendy Norbeck, Mae Payne).
3. The Lamb (Michelle Shaughnessy) is at her finest.
4. Eve daydreams by the lake.
5. L-R: M. Shaughnessy, G. Gayhart, W. Norbeck, M. Payne.
6. Adam (Matt Larsen) complains again.
7. Adam and Eve are together.

Some of My Best Friends Are Smiths

In this play, Smith and Jones are stuck in a small town overnight. When they go to register at a hotel they find that Smiths are not welcome. Through the play we learn that all Smiths have become the scapegoats for that town's problems over the years.

1. Smith (Mary Jo Biesack), Brown (Heidi Sura), and Blake (Mary Stine) reflect on what has been said.
2. Blake (M.S.) gives everyone a piece of her mind.
3. Smith (M.J.B.) and Jones (Brandi Hudson) discuss plans for the next day.

1

4

1. Smith (M.J.B.) waits for Jones to finish checking in.
2. Brown (H.S.) explains her view of the situation.
3. Smith (M.J.B.) gives up and decides to leave.
4. Blake (M.S.) blames Smith (M.J.B.) for the world's problems and lets her know it.

Scott,
 I am really glad that we met this year. You are a real funny guy - so stay that way!!! Good!
 Duck in life!

The Lottery is the story of a hypothetical small town that holds an annual lottery in an attempt to assure healthy crops and good fortune for the coming year. One by one, each family draws a slip, hoping not to pick the one with a black dot on it. The play has a shocking ending when the audience learns that the "winner" of the lottery becomes a human sacrifice to be killed by her neighbors and even her own family.

The Lottery

7

1. Mrs. Dunbar (Melanie Westrich) and Mrs. Watson (Kristin Lueneberg) share recent gossip.
2. Little Davey (Aaron Bode) gives the final blow.
3. Miss Bessom (Tricia Hanson) and Mrs. Watson (K.L.) chat casually, seemingly unaffected by what is to happen.
4. Belva Summers (Lori Cabush) listens as Old Lady Warner talks of the past.
5. Davey takes his chance as Jack Wilkins (Warren Lettsome) and Joe Summers (Jim Hendrickson) look on.
6. Bill Hutchinson (Matt Larsen) speaks to his son Davey (A.B.) before the lottery.
7. Delacroix (James Broadbent) greets Bill Hutchinson (M.L.) and Davey (A.B.).

1. Chris Plowman and Kathy Hardy share a moment of fun at the Girls' Semi-Formal.
2. Michelle Meendering and her date from Park (Mike Madson) seem to be in a good mood.
3. Ives Groves Golf Club provided a nice setting for the formal.
4. Music was provided by "Paradox."
5. Carrie Borke and Ben Jerry try out a slow dance.
6. Sue Mathias and Todd Mottl get in the swing of things.

4. Quarterback Paul Lehmann searches for receivers in the South Milwaukee secondary.

Football Action

6

Despite the team's high hopes, and the much improved attendance at the games, The Eagles' season was not the best this year. With an overall record of 3-6, Case ended near the bottom of the Suburban Conference. There were a few highlights, however, such as the 15-13 defeat over city rival Park. In addition, players Todd Henderson, James Shelton, William Smith, and Steve Ocker were chosen for All-County Football, First team. Ocker and Smith were also chosen as this year's Honorary Team co-captains.

5. Junior halfback, Teddy Ford, tries to turn the corner.

6. Seniors Parnell Davis and Todd Henderson shut down a West Allis halfback.

6. The team receives a pep talk.

This year's boys' soccer team had a good season. Although plagued by inexperience and youth, the Eagles played very well together. They concluded their season with a 4-8 record.

Girls' Cross-Country

1

For the Case Girl's Cross-Country Team this season was one of rebuilding. Underclassmen were brought up to fill the gap left by the graduation of last year's varsity. Led by All-Country Runner of the Year, junior Judy Bishop, the youth and inexperience of the team didn't slow the Eagles. They placed in the top five for most meets and made the trip to the State meet once again. This experience is important for the seasons to come. In fact, three other members of this year's team were chosen for the All-Country, first team. These were sophomore Shannon Francis, and freshmen Georgia Worden and Traci Becker. Head Coach Frazier was chosen as Racine's Girl's Cross-Country Coach of the Year.

2. Teammates Karen Glaub and Shannon Francis help pace each other.

Scott,

The year is finally done
and it really sucked.
But it was cool having you in class. Don't Party too much because I know you want to be back here next year.
Take it easy.

Eric

you'll miss. It too much beca
know you want back here next Take it easy.

Mike

It's been great knowing you hope you stay as cool as you already are. See you over the summer

James Fk horsehead. I better not write anything dirty, cause your moma might Read it. You're a pretty cool dude in English except that you talk to much... You never shut up!!
Maybe I'll see you next year! (God
I hope not)(J.K.)

Scott,

you were pretty cool in my 3

SCOTT, guy
To the guy who squitted me with his water gun!
I didn't tell I wish I could have gotten to know you better next year eh? Don't get too drunk
over the summer
I would give you my phone # but you'd probably prank me!! Well have a great summer. Luv, Laura

Scott,

Have a growdy summer,
but dont get drunk anymore
I dont think anyone wants to clean up after you again.

Scott,
Call me if you know of any swingin' parties. Stay cool ^{at}

Scott,

Hey, Have a good summer and have fun.

Hi. Scott one cool crazy guy. Stay Fresh.

Amber

Scott
It's been great having ya in health class. BUT!!
She's a bitch
Luv ya!

Dana

P.S. Thanks for letting me be the 25th
signer!

Scott,
I'm really glad
we met this year.
You a nice guy.
Even though English is my worst class
you always made it enjoyable. Enjoy
